WHEATLAND SCOUT

Reserve Champion, 1949 Spokane Spring Show and Sale

Sold to B. A. Lockhart, St. John, Wash.

Twenty-three of the leading Shorthorn herds of the Northwest are consigning 61 head of top cattle for our 34th Annual Spring Show and Sale. These 44 bulls include top herd bulls and big rugged range bulls of the right type. The 17 females are good individuals with top pedigrees of the right kind for foundation stock for new herds or additions to your good herds.

Represented here is the get of some of the top bulls anywhere in North America, as these consignors have purchased the best animals from the top sales in the United States and Canada or are using the tops from these great herd sires.

Many of the cattle offered here were tops in the strongest competition in the 1949 show circuit, while many more are sons and daughters of the top show animals of previous show seasons.

We look forward to seeing you in Spokane on March 8 and 9.

MARIGOLD BELLRINGER. A Star Consul that has what it takes. He has plenty of weight for his age and still is smooth. Good bone and what we think to be an outstanding head. If you are looking for a herd bull to go right to work, here is the opportunity to secure this breeding at its best.
